

Glebe Meadow & Starston Bird List

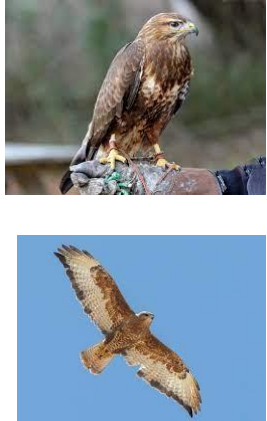

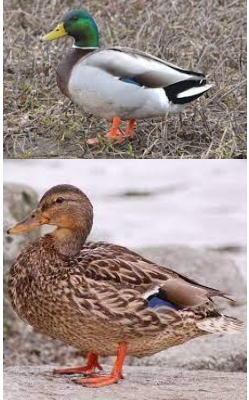

NAME:

The following is a list of birds which can be seen In Starston. When you spot one, tick the box to say if it was on or above the Glebe Meadow or somewhere else in Starston. If somewhere else please say where. This is not an exhaustive list and if you see anything that is not here, please let us know.

BIRD	GLEBE	SPOTTED IN STARSTON
House Sparrow
Dunnock
Robin
Starling
Blackbird The Male is black The Female is brown
Blue Tit
Great Tit

Long Tailed Tit
Coal Tit
Chaffinch
Wren
Song Thrush
Greenfinch
Goldfinch
Nuthatch
Kingfisher
Tree Creeper

Green Woodpecker
Great Spotted Woodpecker
Jackdaw
Crow
Rook
Magpie
Jay
Wood Pigeon
Collared Dove

Kestrel You may see a Kestrel sitting on a fence post or hovering about the grass
Buzzard You may see a Buzzard sitting on a fence post or more likely flying and circling above you
Barn Owl If you're lucky you could see a Barn Owl on a post but more likely you'll see it hunting at dawn or dusk
Tawny Owl
Mallard The male has a green head. The female is brown with a blue flash under her wing
Moorhen

Little Egret
Heron
Pheasant
Pied Wagtail
House Martin
Swallow
Swift				